Grip

By Laura-Anne White

Laura-Anne White is a registered nurse who works primarily with adult cancer patients. At present, she resides in California, and has worked previously in Minnesota and New York. Art and writing serve as a healthy outlet and source of joy for her. She created this piece in April, while working on an inpatient Covid-19+ cancer unit in New York City. Artist's statement: "We are living in times of change - the only way forward is together." Find her on Instagram @lawhite_art or visit her website. All proceeds from the sale of prints of "Grip" go to Black Women's Health Imperative <https://bwhi.org/our-story/>.
